

MaxNetAging Conference 2014

Older People in Relation to Younger People

February 18-19, 2014

Venue: Resort Schwielowsee

Posters of MaxNetAging Students

February 18 at 15.30 pm and February 19 at 10.30 am

Ana Sofia Alves Conte de Morais

MPI for Human Development, Berlin

How Healthy Aging and Dementia Impact Memory Search

Hanna C. Baro

Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz –
Max-Planck-Institut

Concepts of Transience in 20th and 21st Century Art

Paul Becker

MPI for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity, Göttingen

Russia's labour migrants: the role of social networks and aging in adaptation strategies

Elisabeth S. Blanke

MPI for Human Development, Berlin

Nice to Meet You – Empathic Accuracy and Social Outcomes in Zero-Acquaintance Dyads

Sandrine Bisenius

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences, Leipzig

Meta-analyzing primary progressive aphasia with activation likelihood estimates

Hanna B. Fechner

MPI for Human Development, Berlin

How working memory load impacts decision strategies in younger and older adults

Aleksandr Khechumyan

MPI for Foreign and International
Criminal Law, Freiburg

Early Release of Terminally Ill Elderly Federal Prisoners in the Light of the U.S. Constitution: Is Compassionate Release Constitutionally Required?

Cornelia Moers

MPI for Psycholinguistics, Nijmegen

Knowing what's next - Age-related effects of local predictability in reading

Silvia Rizzi

MPI for Demographic Research, Rostock

Efficient ungrouping of coarsely grouped count data with the penalized composite link model

Anne Schrimpf

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain
Sciences, Leipzig

Weight stigmatization and rejection processing in lean and obese participants

Louise Schubotz

MPI for Psycholinguistics, Nijmegen

Communicating common ground: Multi-modal language use of young and older adults