

MaxNetAging Conference

Early Life-Late Life An Interdisciplinary Approach towards Aging

October 6-8, 2010
Parkhotel, Schlangenbad

Poster-Session

Wednesday, October 6, 2010

Isabelle Bareither

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences

Neural and cognitive effects of subliminal visual stimuli in older versus younger adults

Lucy Davis

MPI for Art History

'The Jester of the Gods': Silenus in European visual culture, 1550-1650

Roberta Ferrario

MPI for Foreign and International Criminal Law

Equality, proportionality and individualisation in criminal sentencing. A comparative study focusing on criminal cases involving adult and elder offenders.

Pia-Leonie Fox

MPI for Art History

*Aging as symbol of time and future
Sacred imagery in 15th and 16th century Europe*

Ramona Kaiser

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences

Detection of social interaction from interpersonal movement kinematics in dance

Riccardo Marinello

MPI for European Legal History

British protective labour legislation for young persons - The formation of youth as a phase of life in 19th century Great Britain

Andrea Nicolas

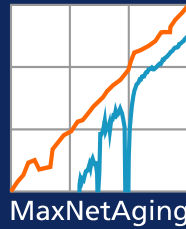

MPI for Social Anthropology

Feasting and the politics of age: Tulama-Oromo Gadaa organisation

Anita von Poser

MPI for Social Anthropology

Bosmun Notions of Ageing in Transition (Ramu River, Papua New Guinea)

MaxNetAging Conference

Early Life-Late Life
An Interdisciplinary Approach towards Aging

October 6-8, 2010
Parkhotel, Schlangenbad

Felix Ringelhan

MPI for Demographic Research

Aging in basal metazoans – a biodemographic approach

Maria Paula Roncaglia

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences

Age of acquisition or inter-individual differences: What drives syntactic ambiguity resolution?

Gian Marco Vidor

MPI for Human Development

"This sweet flower cut down in its prime". Emotions in the 19th and 20th century Italian cemeteries: the case of children's graves

Thursday, October 7, 2010

Dominic Akyel

MPI for the Study of Societies

The economization of the sacred: The transformation of the death care industry in Germany

Van Bui

MPI for Demographic Research

A couple's retirement decisions in a family context

Nadine Diersch

MPI for Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences

The role of expertise in an aging mind for simulating the actions of others

Anne Friederike Kachel

MPI for Evolutionary Anthropology

The evolution of human life history - insights from an agent-based modeling perspective

Fanny Kluge

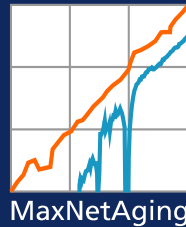

MPI for Demographic Research

How East and West Germans finance their lifecycle consumption: evidence from NTA

Ambaye Ogato

MPI for Social Anthropology

Tradition, identification and ethnic politics: age grade system of the Sidama in Perspective

MaxNetAging Conference

Early Life-Late Life
An Interdisciplinary Approach towards Aging

October 6-8, 2010
Parkhotel, Schlangenbad

Susanne Passow

MPI for Human Development

Adult age differences in perceptual and attentional influences on verbal auditory processing

Julia Wolff

MPI for Human Development

Social support and health outcomes - a comparison of younger and older adults

Anne Ziemke

MPI for History of Science

Immortality, death and evolution - the study of aging in 19th century biology

Further projects (without poster presentation)

Julia Barthold

MPI for Demographic Research

Sex differences in fertility and mortality in developed countries: an evolutionary ecology approach

Davide Dossi

MPI for Art History

Alessandro Turchi: an artist grows old

Katharina Frosch

MPI for Demographic Research

Workforce age, human capital and innovation

Sabine Kampmann

MPI for Art History

Age and aging in art and visual culture

Franziska Kunz

MPI for Foreign and International Criminal Law

Crime, deviance, and older people: a self-report-study among 50-to-80-years-olds

Philip Leifeld

MPI for Research on Collective Goods

Political discourse networks and German pension politics.